Whitehall, April 18.

The following Addreſs of the Council and Inhabitants of the Iſlands of Scilly has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Governor of the ſaid Iſlands: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To His Moſt Sacred MAJESTY.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Inhabitants of the Iſlands of Scilly, beg Leave with all Humility to offer to your Majeſty our moſt hearty Congratulations that it hath pleaſed God Almighty to reſtore your Majeſty to Health.

We acknowledge, with all poſſible Gratitude to Heaven, this Bleſſing conferred upon us, and moſt earneſtly pray for a long Continuance of it.

Signed by the Preſident of the Council at the unanimous Requeſt of the Inhabitants of all the Iſlands, this 8th Day of April, 1789.

John Medbury, Preſident of the Council of the Iſlands of Scilly.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Cheſter, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe, humbly beg Permiſſion to join in the Felicitations of your People, declared as with one Voice on the happy Reeſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health.

It might well be expected that a Nation duly ſenſible of the Virtues, the paternal Care, and the unremitted Attention of their Sovereign to the Welfare and Proſperity of His Kingdoms, ſhould render to Him the moſt grateful Returns of Duty and Affection.

To what Extent He reigned in their Hearts could not have been certainly and fully known but by the late univerſal Dejection and Anxiety of your Subjects during the Preſſure of your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition, and by their preſent Joy and Exultation on ſeeing their beloved Monarch reſtored to them.

We hope, that while your People offer up their Thankſgivings to the Throne of Grace for this ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence in their Favor, accompanied by their earneſt Supplications for the long Continuance of your Majeſty's Health and Welfare, and of your mild and provident Reign over them, after your Majeſty's illuſtrious Example, by their Lives to render their Prayers effectual:

We, as our Characters and the Charge which we have undertaken require at our Hands, will not fail to inculcate upon their Minds the joint Duties of fearing God, and honouring the King.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury, approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts full of the moſt fervent Gratitude to the God of Mercies, who, in reſtoring your Majeſty to Health, has reſtored Comfort to an afflicted Queen, Happineſs to an affectionate People, Energy to Government, and Countenance to Religion.

May that Gracious Being, by whom Kings reign and Kingdoms proſper, long, very long, continue your Majeſty the happy Inſtrument of ſecuring the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Religion and Civil Liberty to Subjects who feel and acknowledge the Advantages they derive from the Virtues of a Sovereign whom they revere and love!

And may theſe Bleſſings, the beſt Gift of Heaven to a Nation, be tranſmitted undiminiſhed to our lateſt Poſterity, under a Succeſſion of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty, who, forming themſelves on your Illuſtrious Example, may never forget that their own Happineſs can be promoted only by ſtudying to promote that of their People!

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

[Delivered by Sir William Manſell, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for that County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign

WE, your Majeſty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Grand Jury, Burgeſſes, Commonalty and Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, aſſembled, humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our moſt ſincere and dutiful Congratulations on your Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that every Addition to your Happineſs muſt give the moſt pleaſing Satisfaction to all your Subjects, who have ſo long enjoyed the Bleſſings of your mild and equitable Government.

We chearfully embrace this Opportunity of teſtifying our Joy, and laying theſe our Congratulations, with all Humility, at the Foot of your Throne.

La très humble Addreſſe préſentée au Roi par les Paſteurs, Anciens et Diacres des Egliſes Hollandoiſe et Françoiſe de Londres.

SIRE,

PERMETTEZ à vos très humbles et très fideles Sujets, les Paſteurs, Anciens et Diacres des Egliſes Hollandoiſe et Françoiſe de Londres d'apporter aux Pieds de votre Trône l'Expreſſion de l'ardente Reconnoiſſance dont leurs Cœurs ſont pénétrés envers le Souverain Arbitre des Evénements, pour l'heureux Rétabliſſement de votre Majeſté.

La Vivacité de notre Joye dans cette Occaſion ne peut être comparée qu'à celle de la Douleur dont nous avons été navrés, tant qu' aduré le Danger qui menaçoit des Jours auſſi précieux à l'Etat et à l'Egliſe que les vôtres. . . .

Tels ſont, Sire, les Sentiments que nous partageons avec toute la Nation, et ſur le ſincere Hommage deſquels nous osons eſpérer que vous ne déaignerez pas de jetter le même Regard propice, dont nous ſupplions le Roi des Rois d'accueillir les ſerventes Prières que nous lui addreſſons pour la conſtante Proſpérité de votre Perſonne Sacrée, dont nous continuons à implorer la Protection pour la Reine votre Auguſte Epouſe, et pour toute votre Famille Royale.

Nos Voeux à tous ces Egards ſont l'Echo fidele et reſpectueux des Acclamations dont retentit tout un Royaume, qui célèbre, en ce Temps, dans le Retour de votre Santé, celui de la Félicité publique; de tout un Royaume que vous avez accoutumé, par la Douceur de votre Gouvernemnt, à croire ſon Bonheur attaché à la Prolongation d'une Carriere chérie, dont ſes Souhaits ne ceſſeront de reculer le Terme, et qu'ils voudroient même, dans le Ferveur qui les anime pouvoir rendre immortelle ſur le Trône, comme le Souvenir des Vertus dont vous le décorez le ſera dans l'Hiſtoire.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine.

Deeply impreſſed as our Hearts are with the trueſt Feelings of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government. The late Indiſpoſition of your Majeſty, and the Interruption of the Perſonal Exerciſe of your Authority, could not but fill our Minds with Sentiments of the moſt poignant Sorrow and Regret. We now feel a proportionate Degree of Exultation, mixed with humble and ſincere Gratitude to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events, for His Goodneſs in having reſtored our beloved Monarch to the earneſt Prayers of His affectionate Subjects.

Our moſt ardent Wiſh is, that your Majeſty, in the full Enjoyment of Health and of every earthly Felicity, may long continue to reign over a loyal, a flouriſhing, and a happy People.

We cannot attempt to deſcribe the Exultation we feel on ſo great an Occaſion, ſo conſolatory to your Royal Houſe, ſo important to the Welfare of Millions, and ſo deſervedly the Subject of adoring Gratitude.

Our Prayers have been heard, and our Joy is complete, unmingled with any Motives unworthy of ſuch pious and benevolent Affections.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Chief Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Iſle of Wight.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PArticipating in the General Happineſs felt by all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects on the moſt happy Recovery of your Majeſty from your late Indiſpoſition, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Chief Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Iſle of Wight, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere Congratulations, and to join the univerſal Prayers of all our Fellow-Subjects to the Almighty Power, that your Majeſty may long continue to enjoy the Bleſſing of Health, and to reign over a free and grateful People, truly ſenſible of the National Benefits derived to them from your Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects. May it pleaſe your Moſt Gracious Majeſty,

WE, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the ancient Corporation of Campden, in the County of Gloceſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ardent and unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Reſtoration to your former Health. It hath not, indeed, been our Cuſtom, on the ſucceſsful Events of other Times, to mingle our Addreſſes with thoſe of more ſplendid Corporations and more opulent Towns, but the preſent Occaſion is of ſuch infinite Importance in our Sight, that though, perhaps, we may appear ridiculous in our Inſignificancy in the Eye of Pride, yet we ſhall more willingly incur the Cenſure of being forward and impertinent than diſaffectionate and diſloyal. However, therefore, we may yield to other Corporations in Magnificence and Rank, yet we ſhall yield to none either in the pureſt and moſt diſintereſted Motives, or the fulleſt and moſt heartfelt Satisfaction on the preſent joyful Event; and as we are taught that Heaven equally regards the earneſt and ſincere Prayers both of the Rich and Poor, ours, we truſt, will be equally effectual in bringing down its moſt eminent and ſignal Bleſſings both on your Royal Perſon and your Poſterity. But it may become us to leſſen ſo much of our Boaſt of pure Diſintereſtedneſs as not to grant that we have ſome Relation in theſe Prayers to ourſelves, ſince we are moſt firmly perſuaded, that our own Happineſs is intimately connected with that of your Majeſty, and that the Liberties of Great Britain will for ever be coeval with the mild Domination of the Houſe of Brunſwick.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, ever actuated with a lively Senſe of your Majeſty's gracious Attention to our Welfare, beg Leave to approach you with Hearts fraught with Gratitude to Divine Providence for having vouchſafed to us your happy Recovery.

With Minds impreſſed by the Bleſſings we participate in the due Obſervance and Protection of thoſe Rights, which, whilſt they ſupport the national Affluence and Proſperity, ſecure our private Privileges and Comfort; we moſt ardently wiſh you a Continuance of Health and domeſtic Happineſs; and that you may long live to poſſeſs the Hearts and Affections of a flouriſhing, free and loyal People.

May the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, to whom we offer the Tribute of Praiſe and Gratitude for this ſignal Inſtance of His Favour, long, very long, preſerve in Health, Honour and Dignity your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Life; may He bleſs it with the Enjoyment

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmſbury, with grateful Thanks to the Almighty for His ineſtimable Goodneſs in reſtoring to Health our Royal Sovereign from the late ſevere Indiſpoſition, beg Leave, as a Teſtimony of our Zeal, Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, to tender you our ſincere Congratulations upon this joyful Occaſion.

Senſible of the Happineſs we have enjoyed under your mild and juſt Government, we ſhall ever invoke with our fervent Prayers the Divine Providence, that He may pour down in Abundance His Bleſſings upon your Majeſties, and be your Guide through a long, proſperous and glorious Reign, over a free and loyal People.

Signed by the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgeſſes, and ſealed with the Seal of our Borough.

We feel, in common with the reſt of your loyal Majeſty's Subjects, the Benefits which muſt reſult from the Government of a King juſtly diſtinguiſhed for every public and private Virtue, whoſe mild and legal Exercise of Authority, and unwearied Attention to the Proſperity and Intereſt of His Subjects, has endeared Him to the Hearts of a free and happy People.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and may you know no Interruption of public or domeſtic Happineſs.

E. Hobling, Mayor.

[Delivered by Right Honourable Lord Eliot, accompanied by the Honourable Edward James Eliot and the Honourable John Eliot, Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THAT it has pleaſed Almighty God, out of His abundant Grace and Goodneſs, to effect ſo ſpeedy and perfect a Recovery of your Majeſty's Health, is ſuch a remarkable Inſtance of His interpoſing Providence in Favour of His afflicted People, as is without Example in the Annals of our own, or the Hiſtory of any other Nation.

Impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for this ſignal Proof of His Divine Love and Condeſcenſion, we, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Aſhburton, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on this happy, important and ever memorable Event.

Fully ſenſible of the ineſtimable Value of the great and numerous Benefits we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Adminiſtration, (evinced by the proſperous State of all your Majeſty's Dominions, and by the Extenſion of our Commerce throughout the Face of the whole Earth) we cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Ardour of our Feelings, when it was announced by Authority that your Majeſty had reſumed the perſonal Exerciſe of your Regal Government; and we moſt fervently pray, that it may pleaſe Divine Providence to vouchſafe to the happy People of this Realm, the long, long Continuance of this ineſtimable Bleſſing.

We cannot conclude without offering up our Praiſes and Thankſgivings to the Almighty, who has been graciouſly pleaſed in the Plentitude of His Mercy and Benificence, to reſtore to the Royal Breaſt of your moſt amiable Conſort our moſt Gracious Queen and your Royal Progeny that Serenity and Peace of Mind, of which, by the late and ſevere Indiſpoſition of your Majeſty, they have been ſo long bereft.

May the Great Diſpoſer of all Events, who has ſo peculiarly preſerved your moſt Sacred Majeſty, ſtill continue to favour you with His fatherly Protection, bleſs you with the full Poſſeſſion of the moſt perfect Health, Peace and Happineſs here, and finally bring you to the everlaſting Joys of Heaven hereafter.

[Delivered by Robert Mackreth, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magiſtrates, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Bradford, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Humility, to preſent to your Majeſty our Congratulations on that critically opportune and ſignally gracious Interpoſition of the Almighty in Favour of this Nation, manifeſted in the late happy Event of your Majeſty's Reſtoration to Health.

Gratefully impreſſed with this ſingular Mark of Divine Goodneſs, we feel ourſelves impelled by Duty, Intereſt and Inclination to offer up our Prayers (which cannot but be empaſſioned by the Recollection of the numberleſs Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your truly fatherly Government of us) unto Him by whom Kings reign, that you may live long and happily with the beſt of Women, of Conſorts, and of Queens, an Example to Princes, an Honour to Human Nature, and a Bleſſing to your People.

[Delivered by Sir James Tylney Long, Bart. and Henry Addington, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Devizes.]

To

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York.

BE pleaſed, moſt Gracious Sovereign, amidſt the general Joy which your happy Recovery has diffuſed through every Part of your Realm, to accept the humble Congratulations of your faithful Subjects the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in Yorkſhire: We have been too long ſenſible of the beneficial Effects of your mild and parental Government, not to become Partakers in the univerſal Gloom which overſpread the Land upon your late Indiſpoſition, and the temporary Suſpenſion of the Regal Authority; and be aſſured, great and good Sire, that though we may be amongſt the laſt in expreſſing our Joy, yet we are not behind the foremoſt of your loyal Subjects in the Sincerity of our Addreſs to your Majeſty upon the happy Change which has taken Place in Conſequence of your perfect Recovery, and Re-aſſumption of the Reins of Government. May we be as ſincere in our grateful Acknowledgments to that Supreme Being who rules over All, and by whom Kings reign, for the viſible Interpoſition of His Providence, on an Occaſion ſo awful, and at a Criſis ſo very intereſting and important to the Peace, Welfare and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, that ſo He may be pleaſed long to continue to us thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which He has again put us in the Poſſeſſion of by the Reſtoration of our King.

On Behalf and at the Requeſt of the Meeting,
Hen. Wickham, Chairman.

[Delivered by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Warden, Aſſiſtants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall aſſembled.

AMIDST thoſe univerſal Demonſtrations of Joy upon your Majeſty's late providential Recovery, by which the Love of your People, the trueſt Glory of a Monarch, has been ſo amply diſplayed, we, the Warden, Aſſiſtants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, equally participating the Benefits of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and equally intereſted in your Majeſty's Welfare, and that of your Auguſt Family, feel ourſelves too ſenſibly affected with the auſpicious Event, and too powerfully impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs to remain ſilent.

Accept then, moſt gracious Sovereign, this our humble Tribute of the ſincereſt Congratulation and warmeſt Affection, who, in true Loyalty and ſteady Attachment, are not inferior to any of your faithful Subjects, whoſe earneſt Wiſh and conſtant Prayer is, that your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort and Illuſtrious Deſcendants may long live in Health, Proſperity and Peace; ſtill diffuſing the Bleſſings of our excellent Conſtitution amongſt a free, united, and happy People.

[Delivered by Sir John Thorold, Bart. one the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Lincoln.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, Yeomen and others, Inhabitants of the Towns and Pariſhes of Buckland-Monarchorum, Walkhampton, Meavy, Sandford-Spiney and Horrabridge, in the County of Devon, united, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt dutiful Congratulations, that the Almighty has been pleaſed to reſtore the Father of an afflicted People again to rule over them.

Poor and few in Numbers, yet rich and great in Loyalty, our Mite, like the Widow's, we have preſumed, amidſt the general Offerings, will not be unacceptable to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, when we reflect that our Prayers for His happy Recovery have been received at the Throne of Mercy; Prayers not alone of His own affectionate People, but of all the Nations of Europe, that a Prince ſo truly good, might be reſtored for the Benefit of Mankind.

That your Majeſty may long, very long, enjoy the exalted Pre-eminence of being the Darling of your Country, reigning (where good Kings only ſhould reign) in the Hearts of your People, and looked up to as the Common Parent of Europe, till it ſhall pleaſe the King of Kings to call you, full of Years, crowned with Glory to the Participation of that Kingdom which is prepared for the Righteous alone: And that a Succeſſion of your Poſterity, emulating the Virtues of their Anceſtor, may reign over free and happy Britons to the lateſt Period of Time, are the humble and ſervent Prayers of your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Delivered by John Law M'Mellar, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerſet.

May the ſame Almighty Power that has deigned to hear our Petitions, continue to your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Houſe the ineſtimable Bleſſing of Health, and enable you, for a long Succeſſion of Years, to reign, as you have hitherto done, in the Hearts of a grateful, free and happy People.

[Delivered by John Fownes Luttrell, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Weſtmorland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of your Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Weſtmorland, having returned our Thanks and Praiſes to God, the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Things, for having graciouſly anſwered the Prayers of your affectionate Subjects, and relieved us from the Anxiety we felt during your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition, by your Majeſty's Recovery to Health;

We beg Leave humbly to preſent to your Majeſty this Teſtimony of our ſincere Joy on this happy Event; and we beſeech the Almighty that your Majeſty may long reign over and in the Hearts of a free People, the Guardian, Promoter and Defender of

of their juſt Rights and Liberties, both Civil and Religious; and that your Majeſty and our moſt Gracious Queen may enjoy all earthly Proſperity and Felicity, till you both very late exchange a temporal for an eternal Crown of Glory; and that the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government may after be continued through all your Dominions, and the Sceptre ſwayed by your Deſcendants, Princes inheriting the Virtues of their Illuſtrious Anceſtors, till Time ſhall be no more.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit us, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council, Town Clerk, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, with unfeigned Expreſſions of Loyalty humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the joyful Occaſion of your Majeſty's Reſtoration to Health, and the executive Government of this Country: For which happy Event we moſt devoutly join with all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects in grateful Acknowledgments to the Divine Providence.

May the ſame good and gracious Providence long preſerve your Majeſty's Life: May your Majeſty be bleſſed with uninterrupted Health; and, in Poſſeſſion of every Comfort and Felicity, long continue to reign in the Hearts of your faithful and affectionate People.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Irvine, this Day met, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with our ſincere Congratulations on your happy Recovery.

While we beheld with Regret the Interruption which was given to your Majeſty's Health by your late Indiſpoſition, and the Affliction thereby occaſioned to your Royal Conſort and Family, we were not unmindful of our Duty in the Day of Diſtreſs. Remote from the Spirit of Faction as we are from the Objects that influence it, we were earneſt in our Prayers to Almighty God, that you might ſoon be able to reſume the Reins of Government, and do in Perſon what your Majeſty's beſt Repreſentative would have done with Reluctance; and it is with the warmeſt Gratitude and the devouteſt Praiſe that we acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs in this Reſpect. Senſible of the Importance of this Bleſſing, and of the many Advantages we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Reign, it is our Study, as it has always been, to cheriſh in ourſelves, and in thoſe under our Charge, that Deference, Attachment and Duty which are due to the beſt of Sovereigns from a free and happy People. That your Reign over theſe Kingdoms may be long and proſperous, and terminate at laſt in the Poſſeſſion of a Kingdom that cannot be moved, is the Object of our Wiſhes and the Subject of our Prayers.

The peculiar Honour with which your Majeſty has moſt graciouſly deigned to dignify our Society and the Science we profeſs, has conferred on both an Importance which encourages us to hope that the Liberty we now take of begging Permiſſion to lay at your Majeſty's Feet this Teſtimony of our Duty and Veneration will not be conſtrued into Preſumption.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy a Bleſſing ſo providentially reſtored, not only as the Meed of your many Chriſtian and Princely Virtues, but as a Gift ſo eſſential to the Proſperity of theſe Realms and the Happineſs of a grateful People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE!

AMIDST the univerſal Teſtimonies of Joy which your Majeſty receives on the happy Æra of your Reſtoration to Health and the Government of your Kingdoms, permit, Gracious Sire, the Debtors confined in the King's Bench Priſon to join their loyal and ſincere Congratulations for your Majeſty's happy Recovery, and, with Sentiments of Gratitude to an all-wiſe Providence, offer up their Thanſgivings for again bleſſing the Nation with your Sovereignty; and moſt fervently pray to the Almighty, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign the beloved Prince of a faithful and affectionate People. And we ſupplicate Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that though we are unfortunately within the Confines of a Priſon, and not immediately in active Life, and the Service of our Country, yet we are equally alive to thoſe Feelings of Extacy and triumphant Satisfaction which naturally pervade the Boſom of every Britiſh Subject on this ever-glorious Event; and are not leſs ſenſible of the Benignity of that Divine Being who with an heavenly Care hath watched your Majeſty in your Bed of Sickneſs, and

gladened the Hearts of your People by His bleſſed Interpoſition.

And here, Royal Sire, permit us to hope that your Majeſty, from that Virtue and Humanity which inhabits your Breaſt, may (at the Time that you are graciouſly pleaſed to accept theſe Effuſions of our enlivened Hearts) feel a Glow of Sympathy and Compaſſion for the deplorable Situation of Thouſands of your Subjects, now lingering in Obedience to the Laws of their Country, beholding their Wives and Children as Partners of their Miſery, without the Means to ſoothe their Diſtreſs, or wipe the Tear from the Cheek of the Innocent and Unoffending: And may the Feelings of your Royal Boſom and humane Heart ſpeak thoſe Sufferings which we cannot deſcribe, and inſpire your Majeſty to be the happy Inſtrument of our Enlargement, that we may again enjoy the Bleſſings of Liberty, and, by the Exertion of virtuous and honeſt Principles, prove to the World the Purity of our Intentions, and become uſeful Members of Society.

We finally offer up our Prayers to Providence, that your Majeſty's Dominions may long continue to feel the Advantages of being governed by a virtuous and brave Prince; your Reign be uninterrupted by our Enemies; and when you leave this tranſitory State, may you meet the Preſence of your Saviour rich in Years and good Works. Theſe are the heartfelt Dictates of your Majeſty's moſt unfortunate Subjects confined in the Priſon of your Majeſty's Bench.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Debtors confined in Ludgate Priſon, in the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, Freemen and Citizens of your Majeſty's City of London, who, from our Profeſſions as Artificers and Manufacturers, have met with unforeſeen Accidents, and great Loſſes in Trade, which has unavoidably compell d us to our preſent unfortunate Situation of being confined for Debt in the Priſon of Ludgate

Notwithſtanding our Calamities, it is with the moſt humble Submiſſion of Duty and Loyalty to our Sovereign, that we preſume to beg Leave to participate in the general Joy which now reigns ſo predominant throughout your Majeſty's Kingdoms, on Account of your Majeſty's perfect and happy Recovery from the ſevere Indiſpoſition which your Majeſty has been afflicted with; but by the kind Interference of Divine Providence it has enabled the beſt of Huſbands to return to His Royal Conſort; the moſt tender and indulgent Parent to His amiable Off-ſpring; and the beſt of Kings to His happy People.

We beg Leave further to add, that on Account of ſuch happy Recovery, it greatly alleviates the the Diſtreſſes of our Situation, by being ſenſible of our once more experiencing Life under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; and aided by the wiſe and judicious Councils of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, will no doubt, we moſt humbly conceive, continue to prove an Ornament to your Majeſty's Crown; to ſtrengthen and enrich your Majeſty's Dominions; to reduce the aſſumed Conſequence of our Enemies; and claim a Superiority over all other Nations.

May your Majeſty's Health be permanent, and may your Majeſty, in Conjunction with our moſt Gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family, enjoy an uninterrupted State of Happineſs, and live to govern a free, grateful and moſt happy People, is the ſincere Wiſhes and Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt affectionate, and moſt loyal Subjects.

[Delivered by Mr. R. F. Pitt.]

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, the Biſhop of Cheſter, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe, humbly beg Leave to offer our ſincereſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on the Recovery of our beloved Sovereign from His late ſevere Indiſpoſition; an Indiſpoſition which, however unfortunate in other Reſpects, hath taught us fully to value and acknowledge thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy under His mild, juſt and parental Government.

The Affliction which your Majeſty endured throughout that melancholy Period added to our Sorrows at that Time, and the Satisfaction which your Majeſty muſt experience on His Reſtoration to Health greatly enlarges our Joy on this happy Event.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort may long live to be a Bleſſing to each other, and an Example of Virtue to His people, is our fervent and conſtant Prayer.

MADAM,

AMidſt that univerſal Joy which pervades even the remoteſt Corner of theſe Realms on the Recovery from a long and alarming Illneſs of a King endeared to us by eve y Tie, we, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury, beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty the Share we take in an Event which, while it affects us as Subjects of one of the beſt of Princes, muſt more nearly touch your Majeſty's Heart, which has been ſo deeply wounded by the dangerous Situation of one of the beſt of Huſbands.

Amiable and dignified as we had hitherto ſeen your Majeſty in the uniform Diſcharge of every public every private Duty which Proſperity demands, you have appeared to an admiring World, ſtill more amiable, if poſſible, during a Period of the moſt agonizing Diſtreſs, by which the Virtues of a Queen, a Mother, a Wife, and a Chriſtian, could be tried. To ſuch a Conflict nothing could have rendered your Majeſty equal, but the Senſe of Religion which conſtitutes ſo diſtinguiſhed a Part of your Character; nothing but the firmeſt Truſt in that Being who ſometimes chaſteneth whom he loveth; who bringeth Good out of Evil; and who rewardeth Submiſſion to His Will by renewed and additional Bleſſings.
